

Tak

and the POWER of JUJU

≥Huff≥
It's no use.

What's wrong,
Jibolba?

Ah, my apprentices Tak and Lok... it seems I just don't have the right COMPONENTS for my CONCOCTION!

I said... I don't have the INGREDIENTS!!!

We'd be happy to retrieve
these items, O wise
teacher and shaman.

Just give us a list!

The first ingredient is a blade of Slub-Dub grass.

We'll have to get around those grazing sheep,
Lok. They love
Slub-Dub grass!

As first apprentice, I'm well trained in the subtle art of sheep maneuvering—
allow ME, Tak.

MOVE, SHEEP!

No good.
Maybe some Juju
magic would move
this herd.

Oh, boy, better figure out a better way.

Blow-
gun!

FWAP

Got
one!

That doesn't sound so tough!

Whoom!

Mission accomplished!

Next on the list—
a green banana.

Can't let a few
LITTLE obstacles
stand in our way—
come on, Lok!

Aww, who asked you,
Flora?
Besides, I
scared off
the sheep,
didn't I?

Smooth
move, Tak!

Oh, my gosh, I turned Lok into
a PORCUPINE!

Hello, Mr. Mountain Goat, sir.
Could we borrow some of your milk?

It's a LITTLE hard to steer.
Hang on!

What'd
I say?

Get a load
of that wind bag!

How do you like this
wind ride I conjured?
Pretty smooth!

No time for
new friends, Lok!
Our next item is at the top of that mountain.

HEY!

Ugh, what's next? The whisker of a catfish. Lok-- meet me
further down
the shore.

Too
easy!

...the egg of a sleeping
Hootha
Bird.

And
now...

I didn't know
fish HAD whiskers.

OOOF!

EWWW!

Well, Lok, it wasn't easy,
but we did it.

It was actually kind of fun!

I'm sure it's got permanent!

Oh, except for the part
when I turned you into a porcupine!

Better hurry.
We don't want to keep Jibofba
waiting.

We got all the ingredients
you need for your potion!

Who said anything about a potion?
That's an herbal mix for my bubble bath.
Pour it in!

Now be a pal, Tak, and scrub
my back with that porcupine!

The End
